LA PRENSA in Salta, received an envelope containing pamphlets entitled "The Montonero Peronist Movement and the World Cup." Security forces believed these pamphlets were part of an international subversion campaign developed outside of Argentina.

June 2 - A reporter for LA ~~XXXXX~~PRENSA in Formosa received an envelope from Mexico containing pamphlets from a "Special Commission of the World Cup of the MPM."

- On the same date, in the Faculty of Philosophy and Letters of the National University of Tucuman, subversive inscriptions were found denouncing President Videla. They were prepared by the People's Revolutionary Party (PRT).

- In Salta, the Explosive Brigade of the Federal Police found explosive materials utilized by terrorists.

- In a joint operation in San Martin de los Andes, Neuquen province, security forces arrested Eduardo F. Graldini and Graciela Vicente for possession of subversive literature denouncing the World Cup. A female accomplice of Graldini was also ~~xxx~~ arrested. All 3 are presumed to be members of a subversive cell.

June 3 - A hair dresser in San Juan received Montonero literature by mail which was entitled "Movement No. 6 of the Superior Council of the Montonero Peronist Movement (MPM). Literature depicted a little boy dressed in football uniform and poncho. Around his head he wore a ribbon with the/~~xxxx~~ "Montonero". In his right hand he carried a spear and the left hand made a "V" sign.

~~He was wearing a green shirt and dark pants. He was carrying a rifle and a knife.~~
~~and a "Swiss" cross on his chest.~~

June 5 - Luis Alberto Campora and his wife Angela and their daughter were found dead on the freeway between Rosario and Sante Fe. Campora was a labor leader of the UOM (Metal Workers Union). They were gagged with hands tied and shot to death with 9 mm and 22 cal weapons.

Security forces believe they were killed by Montoneros.

- On the same date, subversive elements were seen on the rooftops in the neighborhood of the residence of General Viola in Olivos, Buenos Aires province. They opened fire on police and security forces in the area. No further information on this incident.

June 6 - Security forces discovered radio equipment in ~~Room 2502 of~~ a hotel in La Plata. Equipment was used by Montoneros to ~~inf~~ ~~re~~ interfere with the World Cup soccer games between France and Argentina. They also found antennas, condensers, cassettes and transmitters.

- On the same date, at 7:05 p.m., there was interference with Channel 2 TV in the area of San Miguel del Mondo.
Between ~~7:15~~ 7:15 - 7:30 there was another interference on Channel 2 in the city of La Plata. Interference consisted of transmitting picture of Mario Firmenich with

Smata

- On the same date, the HQ of UTA/Textiles received pamphlets from the CGT-R (R_Resistance,^a/~~ZZZZZZ~~ Montonero front) dated January 1978. The pamphlets contained techniques for carrying out labor resistance.

JUNE 10 - At 6:30 a.m. there was a grenade attack against the Casa Rosada (Gov't House) in the Federal Capital. The attack caused material damage only.

- On the same date in La Plata, Montonero pamphlets were found at the door of the office of the Chief of Labor Relations. Similar pamphlets were also found in the proximity of local factories.

- On the same date, it was reported that Montonero pamphlets mailed from Costa Rica were received in a police precinct in Longchamps.

- On the same date, a vehicle was stolen belong to Radio Rivadavia. The car contained transmission equipment which security officials ~~were~~ ~~which~~ thought was going to be used by subversive for broadcasting. However, the car was subsequently found.

JUNE 13 - The Director General of the police issued an order to alert all police units that they anticipated attacks by terrorist elements against military and police targets. The terrorists would be using rocket launchers with an effective range of 400 ~~xxx~~ meters.

- On the same date in La Plata, an explosive device was detonated outside the home of General Brigone. There were no injuries.

- At 10:30 p.m. there was a rocket attack against the Senior Technical School. There were no injuries.

- On the same date, Precinct 4 in Tucuman received Montonero pamphlets. Montonero pamphlets were also sent to the school of St. Francis of Assisi in San Juan.

JUNE 16 - Montonero posters were found on the walls and in the toilets of a railroad station in La Plata.

- In Salta, the Chief of Provincial police received envelopes from Spain containing pamphlets of the Peronist Montonero Movement.

- On the same date, Federal Police in Buenos Aires detonated a bomb located at 1850 Corrientes Ave. They also removed two suspicious packages from the Hotel Bauen 9th floor on Callao Ave.

- In Cordoba, Montonero publications, Movement 4 and 5, were received via mail from Los Angeles. There were also French and Spanish publications criticizing Argentina and the World Cup.

JUNE 18 - At Viamonte and Rodriguez Peña, subversives fired a rocket at the building of the 601 Intelligence Bn. The rocket did damage to the side of the building but there were no injuries.

- At Corrientes and Pueyrredon in Buenos Aires, Montonero pamphlets were found on the street.

JUNE 19 - A bomb of moderate power exploded in the power plant of the Sarmiento RR Station, 13 km west of Buenos Aires. Explosion caused property damage. The Montoneros took credit for the explosion.

JUNE 21 - The Syrian-Lebanese Society in Tartegal, Salta province, distributed pamphlets written in Arabic praising Che Guevara.

- On the same date, a bomb exploded at the residence of Dr. Juan Alemann, 1016 Amenábar St, Secretary of the Treasury, in the Ministry of Economy. Mr. Alemann was not injured. His wife was a slightly injured and hospitalized. There is a question as to whether this was done by subversives or dissident elements of the military.

- On the same date Montonero leaflets were distributed in the Federal Capital by three men in a Peugeot 504. On that date, police broadcast an alert that vehicles similar to provincial police cars were being used by terrorists. The occupants of the car wore the uniform of the provincial police.

JUNE 23 - Subversives /~~attacked~~ two posts belonging to the Coast Guard in the Federal Capital. The attackers were repelled but escaped, leaving leaflets of the labor block of the MPM.

- On the same date, in the RR Station of Villa Ballester PCML pamphlets were found, entitled "To the Workers and the People." They were signed, regional committee of the province of Buenos Aires, PCML.

- Police reported that a Peugeot 404, using license plate belonging to a Ford Falcon, had been attacking military objectives in the Federal Capital. Shortly thereafter, police broadcast an alert that terrorist elements had attacked the regiment at Patricios, located between Santa Fe and Cerviño Sts in the Federal Capital. The terrorists fired shotguns and grenades from a nearby railroad embankment.

JUNE 24 - In La Plata, a considerable number of Montonero pamphlets were distributed in the downtown area. On the same date, in Tigre, a large number of Montonero pamphlets were distributed.

JUNE 25 - Terrorists attacked ^{with rockets} the police school on José María Moreno Aven, between Rosario and Guayaquil Sts., and escaped the area. The rocket struck the building and damaged the 2nd, 3rd and 4th floors.

- On the same date, an explosive device detonated in the home of Mrs. Anna María de Romero in Cordoba. Police believe this attack was a case of mistaken identity.

- On the same date, in a slum area near Villa Ballester, Montonero pamphlets were distributed. The pamphlets denounced President Videla.

JUNE 27 - Pamphlets were distributed in La Plata by Montoneros. The title of the pamphlet was "Let's put a stop to exploitation and killing - liberty to political and Labor Prisoners - The people are at War."

JUNE 28 - The Director General of Operations of the Federal Police broadcast a report that two cars, a Dodge 1500 and a ~~Ferrari~~ Torino, similar to the ones used by the provincial police, had been seen on the Panamerican route. They were occupied by persons in police ~~uniforms~~ uniforms but they were not police. All police units were alerted to intercept these vehicles and persons if possible.

- On the same date, terrorists in a white peugeot attacked the 43rd police precinct in the Federal Capital with a rocket. One policeman was injured. All police stations were required to provide extra vehicle patrol with reinforced crews to attempt to apprehend the terrorists involved in the ~~rocket~~ ~~rocket~~ attack.

3. The following is a re-cap of the rocket attacks launched against the government and security forces during June.

- On June 10 there was a rocket attack on Govt House.

On 6-13 there was a rocket attack on the Superior Technical School; 6/15, a rocket attack on the Navy Mechanic School; 6/18, a rocket attack on the 601 Intelligence Bn; 6/21, a rocket attack on the office of the Cmdr. in Chief of the 1st Army Corps. Additionally, there was an attack on the Coast Guard prefecture ALBATROS, date unknown; 6/24, there was an attack on the first regiment in Patricios; 6/25, there was a rocket attack on the Federal Police Superior Officers School; 6/28, there was a rocket attack on the 43rd police precinct.

4. ~~Police~~ Security forces believe that an RPG-7 was used in all of the attacks, with the exception of the attack on the first regiment at Patricios. In that instance, the projectile was a Montonero G-40 and ~~in~~ ~~that case~~ three projectiles were fired. The terrorists used a Peugeot 504 or 503 in almost all of these attacks. The attacks were launched from a range of 120 meters minimum and 300 meters maximum. Security forces believe there are at least 13 more rocket grenades in the country and anticipate further instances of this kind. Although at present the Montoneros have been greatly weakened by the counter-repression, they still retain the capability for rocket attacks and for ~~xxxx~~ assassination attempts on soft targets and will probably retain this capability until the middle of next year. Security forces believe that the main Montonero efforts are political and that their overseas activities represent their most important elements. ~~Following~~ project.
